

LA TABLE D'ALFRED

Chef Sylvain Arthus

Chef Sylvain Arthus was born under a lucky star, the Michelin Star (or rather Stars) on July 14, 1975 in his native La Rochelle in France. One look at his experience is enough to prove that indeed he was born under a galaxy of them. From his start with Richard Coutanceau in La Rochelle to his work at the illustrious Joel Robuchon and Alain Ducasse restaurants to his service at the Presidential Palais de L'Elysee during the Chirac administration to the historical epicenter of French gastronomy L'Espadon of the Ritz Hotel, Chef Arthus seems to have amassed a truly priceless experience that culminates at La Table D'Alfred with his new creations.

